Special November Events for the Entire Community

Thanksgiving Feast Community Celebration

Monday, Nov 21 at noon Cost: $5 suggested donation

Time to reflect and to give thanks! Check out the enclosed flyer about this Community event then invite your friends! You'll enjoy musical entertainment and a scrumptious Thanksgiving feast. Be sure to thank our sponsors, the Cole and Mitchell families, for their support of the community and the Center. Call 475-9242

A Message from our Director....

November is a time to reflect and be thankful. When asked, our members say they are thankful for their families, friends, and health. Some members also shared thankfulness for.....

“each day” - Joan

“being able to think” - Diane

“being an American” - Ramona

“another birthday” - Chris/Molly

“living in a community like Chelsea” - Dave

As an organization, we are thankful for our strong community support, our volunteers, our Board of Directors, and for all of our members who make this Center a wonderful and welcoming place. Happy Thanksgiving to all!

~ Trinh

For Joyful Givers . . .

Intergenerational Volunteer Opportunities

Calling all volunteers interested in reading books to pre-schoolers or helping with craft projects: we have some wonderful opportunities for Seniors to support the local pre-schools and engage with young children. Some sewing and knitting projects can be done from home (materials and patterns provided).

We are also looking for volunteers interested in tutoring students in the Chelsea School District. Please call the Center to sign-up for volunteer opportunities.

Charity Quilting

Tuesdays, 1:00 – 3:30 p.m.
This ambitious group has distributed a number of beautiful quilts to local charities. Join them as they continue to turn scraps into heirlooms. A variety of skills needed.

Matching Funds Campaign!

Through the generous support of a donor, we have an opportunity to match donations made to our Endowment Fund, which was created to ensure the Chelsea Senior Center's long term success. This is a great opportunity to see your donation "doubled" to benefit the Senior Center. Please don't wait to make this donation because the current MI state tax credit for your donation will expire after Dec. 31, 2011. Thank you for supporting the long term viability of our mission. For more information, please call Trinh or Kay at 734-475-9242.

for your generosity,
please take some credit.

Help ensure the future of the Chelsea Senior Center by contributing to our endowment fund at the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan. State law entitles you to a tax credit of 50 percent of the amount you contribute, subject to certain limits. Just write a check payable to the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan, indicate the Chelsea Senior Center Endowment Fund in the "memo" line, and mail by December 31 to:

Friday, Nov. 4: The Sound of Music 174 min 1965

Winner of 5 Oscars, this beloved musical tells the story of Maria who leaves an Austrian convent to become a governess to the children of a Naval officer widower.

Friday, Nov. 11: Yankee Doodle Dandy 126 min 1942

James Cagney stars in this film about the life of the renowned musical composer, playwright, actor, dancer and singer George M. Cohan.

Friday, Nov. 18: The Band Wagon 112 min 1953

Fred Astaire and Cyd Charisse star in this musical about a pretentiously artistic director hired for a new Broadway musical which he changes beyond recognition.

Great Books Discussions With Chelsea District Library

Bel Canto by Ann Patchett

Friday, November 4 at 1 p.m.

At a lavish party in S. America, an international gathering of politicians and businessmen enjoy a performance by a famed opera singer – until armed terrorists ambush the event and take the party-goers hostage. Despite the panic and the terror, unexpected bonds form between the terrorists and the hostages and a life-threatening situation turns into something very different.

Rabbit, Run by John Updike

Friday, December 2 at 1 p.m.

Harry Angstrom was a high school basketball star and it was the best time of his life. Now in his mid-20s, his work is unfulfilling, his marriage is waning, and he tries to find happiness with another woman. But happiness is elusive, and Harry continues to run from his wife, his life, from himself and in search of something more.
